The Mace

In medieval times, the Mace was a weapon employed to safeguard a person of great importance. Now it is often used in convocation ceremonies to signify the dignity and authority of the Chancellor.

The Mace is 42" in total length with a 29" nyatoh wooden Shaft with a metallic band about the midpoint of the Shaft. The Shaft has a smaller 1.25" diameter at its lower part and a larger 1.50" diameter at its upper part. It symbolises SEGi's aspiration to grow in knowledge and in strength.

The four gold plated rings above the shaft denote SEGi's core values: Quality, Passion, Vibrant and Caring. This is followed by the inscribed word 'SEGi' sitting above the four rings.

The 6 palm leaves in 24-carat gold plating inscribed in the Bowl represent the 6 SEGi campuses. Each leaf has veins which denote the diversity of programmes offered. Above this bowl are three sets of three rings representing SEGi's vision, mission and goals.

The brass and nickel plated diamond-shaped Body with the SEGi logo signifies the highly competent graduates produced by SEGi. At the head of the diamond-shaped Body, made of pewter with gold plating, is the Crest, a Crescent and a fourteen-pointed Federal Star in 24-carat gold plating.

The whole ensemble at the top of the Mace represents the heraldic practices embodied in the SEGi convocation. It is also symbolic of SEGi upholding the supremacy of the Malaysian constitution.

SEGi University CONVOCATION CEREMONY

Dedicated to All Par-

When I am down and, oh, my soul, so weary;
When troubles come and my heart burdened be;
Then I am still and wait here in the silence,
Until you come and sit awhile with me.

You raise me up, so I can stand on mountains;
You raise me up to walk on stormy seas;
I am strong when I am on your shoulders;
You raise me up to more than I can be.

You raise me up, so I can stand on mountains;
You raise me up to walk on stormy seas;
I am strong when I am on your shoulders;
You raise me up to more than I can be.

There is no life - no life without its hunger;
Each restless heart beats so imperfectly;
But when you come and I am filled with wonder,
Sometimes, I think I glimpse eternity.

You raise me up, so I can stand on mountains;
You raise me up to walk on stormy seas;
I am strong when I am on your shoulders;
You raise me up to more than I can be.

You raise me up, so I can stand on mountains;
You raise me up to walk on stormy seas;
I am strong when I am on your shoulders;
You raise me up to more than I can be.

You raise me up to more than I can be.
